The Resurrection of Our Lord, Easter Day – April 21, 2019

PRELUDE – “Christ the Lord is Risen Today” – Dick Torrans

CONFESSION

The sign of the cross may be made by all in remembrance of their Baptism.

P: In the name of the Father, and of the ☩ Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen

P: Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you and worthily magnify your holy name, through Jesus Christ our LORD. Amen

THE READING: ROMANS 6:3-11

P: If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. But if we confess our sins, God who is faithful and just will forgive our sin and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Silence for reflection and self-examination.

P: Most merciful God,

C: we confess that we are in bondage to sin and cannot free ourselves. We have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name. Amen

PROMISE OF FORGIVENESS

P: Almighty God, in his mercy, has given his Son to die for us and, for his sake, forgives us all our sins. As a called and ordained minister of the Church of Christ, and by his authority I therefore declare to you the entire forgiveness of all your sins, in the name of the Father, and of the ☩ Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen

P: The LORD be with you. C: And also with you.

P: Let us pray...Grant to us, LORD, that all who are baptized into the death of Jesus Christ, your Son, may also live with him in the power of his resurrection; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, now and forever. Amen.

The Paschal Candle is lit.

P: The light of Christ.

C: Thanks be to God.

P: May the light of Christ rising in glory, dispel the darkness of our hearts and minds.

C: We are illumined by the brightness of his rising in glory.

P: Jesus Christ is the light of the world.

C: The light no darkness can overcome.

P: Let your light scatter the darkness,

C: and illumine your Church.

P: The light of Christ.

C: Thanks be to God.

P: Let us go forth in peace.

C: In the name of Christ our LORD. Amen.

RESURRECTION OF THE ALLELUIA BANNER

THE SERMON

HYMN #361 "THE DAY OF RESURRECTION!"

NICENE CREED

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one LORD, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven; by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the LORD, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen

WELCOME TO ALL IN THE NAME OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST!

We especially welcome those who are visiting. We invite you to sign our guest register in the narthex. Blank envelopes in the pews are for visitors.

THE RESURRECTION OF OUR LORD...

"This is the day that the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it." God has indeed raised from the dead the one who was put to death "by hanging him on a tree." Alleluia! God allows Jesus to appear "to us who were chosen by God as witnesses" in holy baptism and invites us to eat and drink at the table of the risen Christ. Alleluia!

ABOUT THE SCRIPTURE READINGS.....

ACTS 10:34-43: Peter's sermon, delivered at the home of Cornelius, a Roman army officer, sums up the essential message of Christianity. Everyone who believe in Jesus, whose life, death, and resurrection fulfilled the words of the prophets, receives forgiveness of sins through his name.

1 CORINTHIANS 15:19-26: Paul describes the consequences of the resurrection, including the promise of new life in Christ to a world that has been in bondage to death. He celebrates the destruction of evil and the establishment of God's victorious rule over all.

LUKE 24:1-12: Evidently expecting to find Jesus' corpse, some of his women followers go to the tomb with embalming spices. After a perplexing encounter with the empty tomb and angelic visitors, the women become the first to proclaim the amazing news of resurrection.

PRAYER FOR THE DAY: The Lord is my strength. (Psalm 118:14)

PRAYER FOR THE WEEK: Lord Jesus, clear away our cloudy vision so that we might see you risen from the grave and know your abiding presence with us. Amen. Alleluia.

PLEASE NOTE: - For those people wishing to take Holy Communion without wine, there are four cups in the center of the Communion tray with grape juice.

Stewardship Snippet

April 21, 2019 (Easter Sunday)

Luke 24:9, 11 –And returning from the tomb, [Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women] told all this to the eleven and to all the rest. But these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them.

The Gospel today can still seem like an “idle tale” for people outside the church. But like the women who found the tomb empty, we can only tell what we know and invite people to see Jesus for themselves.

THANK YOU to everyone who donated hard-cooked eggs, candy, and the plastic eggs that were filled for the egg hunt. It was greatly appreciated.

ALSO, IF YOU HAVE EXTRA PLASTIC EGGS, DON'T THROW THEM OUT! Bring them to church so we can use them next year for our egg hunt. A large plastic bin will be in the narthex for you to “lay your eggs.” Thanks.

MANY THANKS to the choir and Tom Barnak for offering their time and talents this Easter Season. We also thank everyone that helped prepare the nave for worship services throughout Lent, Holy Week, and Easter.

Our thanks to the folks who sponsored the Easter flowers which adorn the Altar area.

ABOUT EASTER.....

The celebration of the resurrection of Christ is the “queen of feasts” of the church year. All other days and feasts of the Christian year focus on this day, for it is this reason Christ came into the world: to die and be raised that sin and death be destroyed.

The origin of the word Easter is disputed, but it probably relates to the fact that the sun rises in the East. The original name for the Resurrection celebration was Pasch (pronounced PAHASK), from Greek and Hebrew words meaning “passing through,” referring to the Israelites rescue from bondage when the avenging angel passed over their homes; the Israelites passage through the Red Sea; and Jesus’ passage through death to new life.

The Resurrection of Christ has been celebrated as a distinct festival since the early 2nd century (100 AD); it was the first festival in the church year. The earliest observance of Easter was at the Easter Vigil, celebrated on Easter Eve.

Easter celebrates an event so great that it cannot be limited to one day. Thus, Easter consists of fifty days, a “week of weeks” (a period originally known as the Pentecost, from the Greek meaning “fifty”). Since the early Church, several practices have marked the fifty days: kneeling was prohibited on Sundays of Easter (because standing is the posture of resurrection), fasting was prohibited (fasting is for Lent and Holy Week, but Easter is for feasting), and “Alleluia” was restored to the liturgy on Easter as a profound expression of joy in the Resurrection.

Indeed, today is the day Jesus Christ rose from the darkness of the grave to new life. Today is the day when the Church celebrates its birth from the waters of baptism and its new life in the Holy Supper. Though suffering, injustice, and sin continue to mark the world in which we live, the Christian community goes forth from font and table with Christ’s mission to heal, liberate, and forgive. In the Fifty Days of Easter rejoicing, the church asks the question: How does our baptism send us forth in joyful service to the world?
